

LOCAL BREVITIES.

No lame horses when shod at "Stock Yards."

Cartage work as promised by Honolulu Stock Yards Co., Ltd.

The Governor's council yesterday granted a liquor license to the Moana Hotel at Waikiki.

The Associated Charities will hold a meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the office.

Armstrong Smith of bubonic fame is studying medicine at Middlesex Hospital, London, England.

The successful Home Rule party will hold their last caucus tonight.

A fine opportunity to learn surveying is offered any young man who will call at Room 400, Boston Building.

It is hoped that all children born at the Maternity Home will be on time today so as to have their pictures taken.

The latest things in fancy black and white Dresden and Pastel Ribbons are to be seen at M. Brash & Co.'s Lace House.

The application of P. Dias for a light was and license at Waipahu was granted yesterday by the Governor's council.

A cottage of one room, which is suitable for light housekeeping, also furnished room, can be had by consulting our want columns.

The proprietors of the Nuuanu Valley brickyard are building additional kilns, a gratifying evidence that their enterprise is proving successful.

A nine-year lease on a first-class rooming-house that is centrally located is offered for sale. For particulars see ad. in Morgan's column.

A long-haired Irish terrier pup strayed from the premises of Mr. Bigelow, on Kinohi street near Victoria.

Reward offered for return of same.

The annual meeting of the Honolulu and Hoola societies will be held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Kapiolani Maternity Home, Beretania street.

The Honolulu and Hoola Society will hold its annual meeting at 10 o'clock this morning at the Kapiolani Maternity Home. All members are invited.

The list of officers who were elected at the annual meeting of the Beretania Music Co. and who are to serve during the ensuing year is published elsewhere.

There is no need of any one groping about in partial darkness, or straining the eyes in the effort to read or work, when you can be promptly fitted by A. N. Sanford, the optician.

The engagement of Miss Alice E. Rickard of Honolulu, Hawaii, to Mr. L. E. Schallberg has been announced.

L. H. Dee is confined to his home on account of a severe illness.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Union Feed Company, Ltd., was held in its offices yesterday morning.

The treasurer's report and the report of the San Francisco branch were read and adopted.

A young man of good standing and ability with best of references, and who is well acquainted in Honolulu, can secure a position as collector in a first-class business house. For particulars see ad.

The Literary Circle of the Kiloahana Art League will hold its fourth entertainment on Saturday, March 2, at 3 o'clock p. m. in the League rooms.

Mrs. H. Mott-Smith will lecture on "A Little Trip Through the Netherlands."

The regular rehearsal of the Amateur Orchestra will be held this evening in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall at 7:45 o'clock.

All members are requested to be on hand promptly. New music will be taken up.

Dr. E. S. Chapman, superintendent of the California Anti-Saloon League, will deliver the third of his series of lectures on the saloon question at Central Union Church tonight.

His subject will be "The Saloon and Manhood."

Mrs. Kinney has kindly consented to give her lecture on "Ibsen" at the Young Women's Christian Association rooms in Progress block Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Travel Club has arranged for the lecture and will be glad to have any women interested attend.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held today at 2:30 o'clock in the parlor of the Central Union Church.

Miss Ackerman and Miss Marcutt will be present at the meeting and speak on the subject of the day. A full attendance of the members is urged.

It will reduce the temperature of your house from 15 to 20 degrees if you have your iron roof painted with "Arabic." This "Arabic" does not cost any more than paint and serves the double purpose of keeping your home cool and preserving the roof. For further particulars see California Feed Co. the agent.

The local agents of the Oceanic Steamship Company inform us that while the Ventura was scheduled and ready to leave San Francisco on the 15th inst., there is a possibility of delay on account of the non-arrival of the British mails in New York.

The probabilities are that she did not leave there until about the 15th inst.

LENT BEGINS TOMORROW

St. Andrew's Cathedral To Have Special Services During Season.

Tomorrow being the first day of Lent, commonly called Ash Wednesday, there will be at St. Andrew's Cathedral a celebration of the Holy Communion at 6:30 a. m. Matins, Litany and Communion service at 11 a. m. and vespers at 7 p. m.

During Lent Matins will be said daily (except on Thursdays) at 7 a. m. and vespers (except on Wednesdays) at 5 p. m. On Thursdays there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 6:30 a. m. and Wednesdays vespers at 7 p. m. Matins on Wednesday and Friday at 11 a. m.

On Sunday evenings the Bishop will preach on the following subjects: First Sunday, February 24, "The Repentance of Saul"; second Sunday, March 3, "The Repentance of David"; third Sunday, March 10, "The Repentance of Ahithophel"; fourth Sunday, March 17, "The Repentance of Judas"; fifth Sunday, March 24, "The Repentance of St. Peter."

When Morgan County, Ill., was first organized a certain farmer was selected for a Justice of the Peace. When the county was added to a circuit and a Supreme Court Justice came down to hold a court, this Justice of the Peace, with the County Attorney and others, called on him. The Justice of the Peace said: "Judge, I want to ask you a question of law." "Ask your County Attorney and these other lawyers of your county," said the Judge. "Oh, I know as much law as those fellows. I want to ask you." "Well, what is it?" said the Judge. "Can a Justice of the Peace grant a divorce?" "Certainly not; he has no jurisdiction," said His Honor. "Well, Judge, you're wrong," said the Justice of the Peace. "He can, for I granted one myself yesterday, and the fellow gone back to Missouri, and the wife's working down there in that hog."

IS READY For the Mardi Gras NOW.

Mardi Gras To Be Celebrated Tonight.

Tonight the Mardi Gras Palace will be filled with gay carnival revellers, masked and attired in costumes that ingenuity and skill can invent to please and captivate the eye and bring a smile of pleasure upon the lips of Prince and Princess Carnival. Honolulu society is enthusiastic over the brilliant affair which has been in the hands of some of its most charming matrons and debutantes for several weeks and it promises to be one of the most brilliant fetes ever given in the Hawaiian capital.

The sale of tickets which has been in the hands of Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes and a corps of the ablest and most persuasive of society ladies, has been a large one and it is anticipated that nearly a thousand of the pasteboards at $2.50 each will have been sold. By 6 o'clock last evening every one of the thirty boxes had been sold and these will be filled with the fashionables of the City, and it is whispered that although those who are to occupy the boxes will not all be masked, their gowns will be exquisite creations.

The palace is decorated by masses of the scintillating hues of the Mardi Gras colors—red, white, yellow and green. Colored draperies have hidden from view the bare walls of the erstwhile palace and myriads of potted ferns and plants will decorate corners and appropriate places, and the view of the hall yesterday was sufficient to indicate that tonight the maskers will revel in a palace of beautiful colors and dazzling lights.

All day yesterday a squad of soldiers from Camp McKinley, kindly detailed by Lieut. Ketchum, consisting of Messrs. Eudine, Grege, Boyie, Cook, Formann, McCauley, Edwards, McCullough, Patterson and Kaczularek, assisted the ladies in transforming the old armory into a fit place for the revels of Prince and Princess Carnival and their merry subjects. The floors were placed in condition to be heavily waxed, and by tonight the floor will be in perfect condition.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance to the palace, giving needed room for spectators to lay their wraps aside. It is understood that spectators who are unmasked will not be permitted the freedom of the floor until after the unmasking.

The doors of the ball room will be open for the reception of guests at 8 o'clock, the maskers being given the exclusive use of the Miller street entrance. The ushers, who are to wear masks, are to have charge of the floor from 8 until 9 o'clock, at which time they will hand the wands of authority over to the floor committee, consisting of the following gentlemen: Dr. M. E. Grossman, floor manager; Frank Armstrong, S. A. Walker, George Fuller, William W. Harris and Fred Angus. After 9 o'clock the ushers will be under the direction of the master of ceremonies. At 9 o'clock the master of ceremonies will give the signal for the grand march, which will be in the nature of a review before those who sit on the throne. At midnight the signal for unmasking will be given by the master of ceremonies. Just previous to that ceremony the judges will award the prizes. The awarding committee, consisting of Mrs. A. H. Isenberg, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, D. Howard Hitchcock, J. Tucker, J. R. Galt and S. M. Damon, will be given positions on the stage behind and on either side of the throne. At 1 o'clock a. m. the bill posters of the Carnival will be disposed of at public auction, and it is therefore essential that the gentlemen have a pocket put into their fancy costumes to carry a few dollars for this purpose as well as other useful purposes.

A large tent will be erected at the main entrance